

Mikhail Stoyanov
Manager, Bulgarian Consulting Centre, Bulgaria

Mr Stoyanov is an expert in energy efficiency in buildings. Has been involved in a number of international projects for promotion of energy efficiency activities in Bulgaria, including

- Pilot Project for Demand Side Energy Efficiency Measures in Public Buildings , Bulgaria” No KIDSF-GA-003/4, EBRD project – Stages 1 and 2, 2005-2007, for the Ministry of Energy
- “Bio-mass Fuelled District Heating System for Razlog, Bulgaria” DEPA project 2001-2004, For the Ministry of Environment and the Municipality of Razlog
- “Pilot project for energy efficiency retrofits at blok 466, Mladost 4” Sofia, UNDP Bulgaria. Stages 1 and 2, 1999-2000, For UNDP and Sofia Municipality
- PHARE Project B9107-03-14 Optimization of District Heating Systems in Bulgaria 1996-97, for the Committee on Energy
- PHARE Multi-Country Energy Project “Energy Investment Management Experts Training” 1997, for the Committee on Energy
- EC PHARE Multi-country Energy Project ZZ 9511.02.02 - “Heat Supply: Legislative and Regulatory Framework”, 1998 – 99, for the Committee on Energy
- Project EHDP / 95 - RUSSIA “Energy Saving Retrofits in Residential Buildings, Ryazan, Russia”, 1997, for the World Bank
- PHARE Project 200/02 -Energy Conservation and Efficiency in Bulgaria.

At present Mr Stoyanov is lead expert and manager at the Bulgarian Consulting Centre.