

Radoslav Kyuchukov
Associate Professor, University of Rouse, Bulgaria

Education: Technical University of Sofia, Bulgaria: MEng degree acquired in Industrial Electrical Power Supply in the period 1963-1968; PhD- Technical University of Sofia (1984).

Industrial experience: Electrical Manager at "Troud" Plant in Rouse in period 1968 – 1969 and "Vela Piskova" Plant in Rouse in the period 1969 – 1975.

Administrative occupation: Since January, 2004 - Vice Rector of the University of Rouse, Bulgaria; 1989 – 1994 – Vice Dean; 1994 - 2004 - Dean .

Academic experience: 1987 – full-time Associate Professor - University of Rouse.

Memberships: President (2008 - full-time) and Member (1970) of the National Committee on Illumination Bulgaria; Member of the Board of the Scientific and Technical Union of the Power Engineers in Bulgaria (2000 - full-time); Member of the Technical Committee No 49 Electrical Installations of Buildings (Bulgarian Institute of Standardization) (1990); President (2005-2006), Secretary (2002-2004) and Member (1999) of the Rotary Club Rouse.

Specializations: 1989 - at the Moskow Energy Institut at the Department of Lightening Equipment, Russia; 1999 - "Technor" – Angoulem, France; 2003 - Oxford Brookes University, UK.

Scientific issues: Author and co-author of more than 111 publications, most of them in Bulgarian and in Russian, in English; 15 manuals. Autor and co-autor of more than 86 investments and research projects. Research interests in: Indoor & Outdoor Lighting; Daylighting; Efficient use of Energy; Renewable energy; Electrical power supply.

Awards: 1999 - "Golden badge" - Federation of the Scientific and Technical Unions in Bulgaria.