

Prof. Florin POP
PROFESSOR, Technical University of Cluj-Napoca, Romania

Professional activity

- Professor with the Universitatea Tehnica din Cluj-Napoca (Technical University of Cluj-Napoca), Romania, since 1992. Head of the Lighting and Electrical Installations university course (since 1973).
- Founding member and Director of the Lighting Engineering Center UTC-N (2000).
- Chairman of the international lighting conferences ILUMINAT 2001, 2003, 2005, 2007 and BALKANLIGHT 2005, Cluj-Napoca, Romania.
- Participation at European and national research programmes:
 - * 2002, NAS-EnerBuild RTD, Newly Associated States EnerBuild RTD, the Thematic Network for Energy Research in the Built Environment, Contract No. ERK6-CT-1999-2001;
 - * 2005, Informatic Integrated System for Energy Efficiency and Saving in Residential Sector - CREFEN, Romanian CEEX programme, Contract C608/2005, 2005-2008;
 - * 2006, Grant EIE/05/I76/SI2.419666 EnERLIn "European Efficient Residential Lighting Initiative, Intelligent Energy-Europe - IEE - programme - 2006 - 2008.

Affiliation to scientific societies

- * Founding member of the BalkanLight Society (1999, Varna, Bulgaria);
- * Founding member and member of the Executive Bureau (1983), vice-president (since 1999) of the Romanian;
Committee of CIE (Commission Internationale de l'Eclairage), member of the CIE - 1st Division.

Membership of Editorial Boards

- * Editor Chief and member of the Editorial Board of the Ingineria Iluminatului journal (since 1999);
- * Member of the International Board Advisory of the Journal of Light & Visual Environment, Japan (since 2003);
- * Member of the Editorial Board of the Energy Efficiency journal - Springer (since 2008).